Writing part (essay)

There is a certain kind of parents ~~that~~ ^{which} thinks that they have enough ^{gr} knowledge to educate their children themselves. But is that a good idea? As every other idea it has disadvantages and advantages which are identifying it as good or bad. Let's st look at them and decide how bad or how good is idea of parent being a teacher ^{or}.

We will talk about advantages first. The most ^{gr} obvious one is that children won't be under enormous pressure of school life and teachers ^{lex} because parents probably won't want to put stress on their children. Another plus of ^{lex} parent being a teacher is a fact that he ^{she} is always near so you can ask any questions any time.

But now let's st be ^{lex} flip the coin and be realistic. The value of such ^{lex} education will be very low. Even if parents work at school as teachers it is still one or two from many other teachers who are ^{lex} studying other subjects. ¹⁵⁰ In school it is also ^{sp} easier to meet new friends. Also if parent is not a teacher than he will know nothing about exams.

At first it can seem as ^{gr} good idea but parents are parents and ^{lex} not the teachers or a walking library. No matter how well educated your parent is, you still need to go to school.
